Leonard Peltier is a citizen of the Lakota/Anishinabe Nations who has been unjustly imprisoned since 1976, even though government attorneys and courts acknowledge that the government withheld evidence, fabricated evidence, and coerced witnesses to fraudulently convict him.

Leonard is recognized worldwide as a political prisoner and a symbol of resistance for Indigenous Peoples. Leonard Peltier is a warrior of the long history of abuse, repression and sacrifice that they have endured.

THIS YEAR MARKS THE 30th YEAR OF LEONARD'S IMPRISONMENT!!

Despite the fact that the government has admitted that the trial was a fraud, Leonard is still behind bars because the U.S. doesn't want this vocal defender of Indigenous rights to be freed.
